

Book Review Critique:

Name of Reviewer: Robbie

“A book review describes, analyzes and evaluates. The review conveys an opinion, supporting it with evidence from the book.” (Asenjo)

Hand this critique in WITH your Book report.

This first draft that you hand in - please Double Space your lines so I can read it! The final copy that we put on our Perspectives of War Website will be single spaced.

Criteria:

Feedback:

Strong Hook/Introduction Sentence	You don't really hook the audience instead it seems like the book review just starts.
Quotes from the book	I like your quote intagrations. It works well in your writing.
Name of the Author	It is present and used well
Background of the author	I didn't see any author background.
Brief Summary / Big Idea of the book is clear	The book idea is quite clear.
Characters / Character Traits mentioned	You mention some characters but you only show the character traits of two
Connection - Compares to another novel or experience	I didn't see any connections to books but I did to the hitler which was good but you could also add a connection to a book.
Opinion is laced throughout	I see a good amount of your opinion however you don't distinctly say if you liked the book or not.
Reflection and/or recommendations	I liked the review however there are some pieces of information your missing.
Approx. 500 - 600 words	Yes