

IN THE BATTLE OF FESTUBERT BY ALICIA

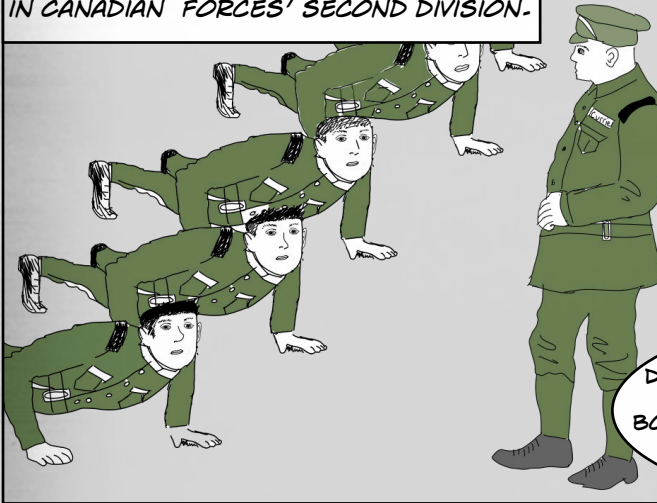

THERE WAS ONCE A YOUNG MAN NAMED JACK JONES, WHO MISSED HIS FRIEND.

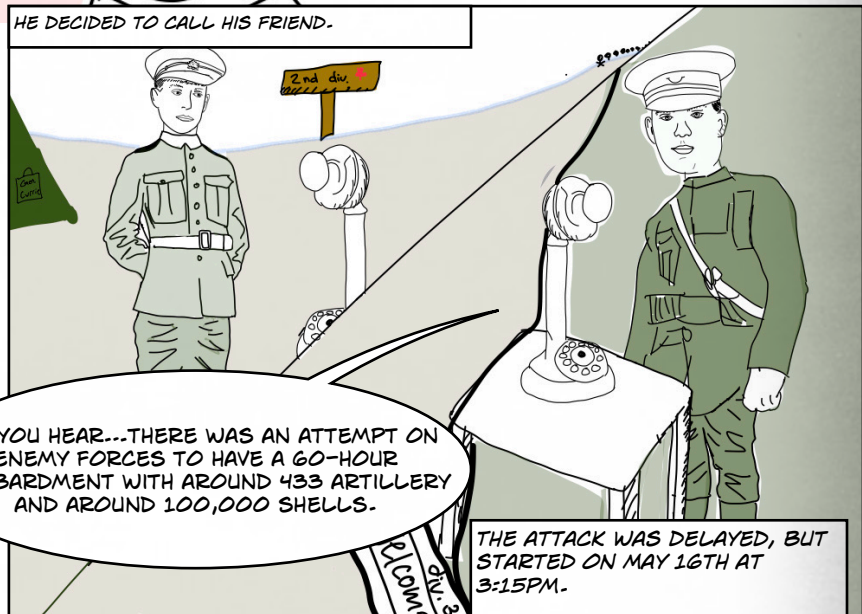

HE DECIDED TO CALL HIS FRIEND.

IN 1915 HE WAS CONTINUALLY TRAINING IN CANADIAN FORCES' SECOND DIVISION.

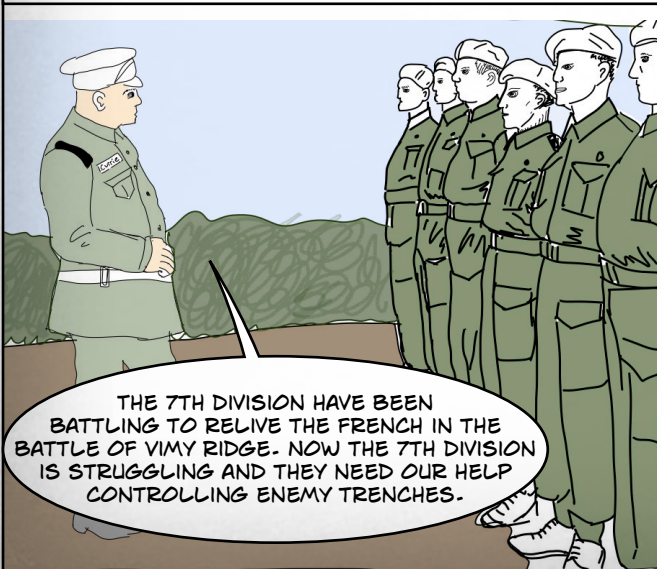

DID YOU HEAR...THERE WAS AN ATTEMPT ON ENEMY FORCES TO HAVE A 60-HOUR BOMBARDMENT WITH AROUND 433 ARTILLERY AND AROUND 100,000 SHELLS.

THE ATTACK WAS DELAYED, BUT STARTED ON MAY 16TH AT 3:15PM.

GENERAL CURRIE HAD SOMETHING TO SAY...

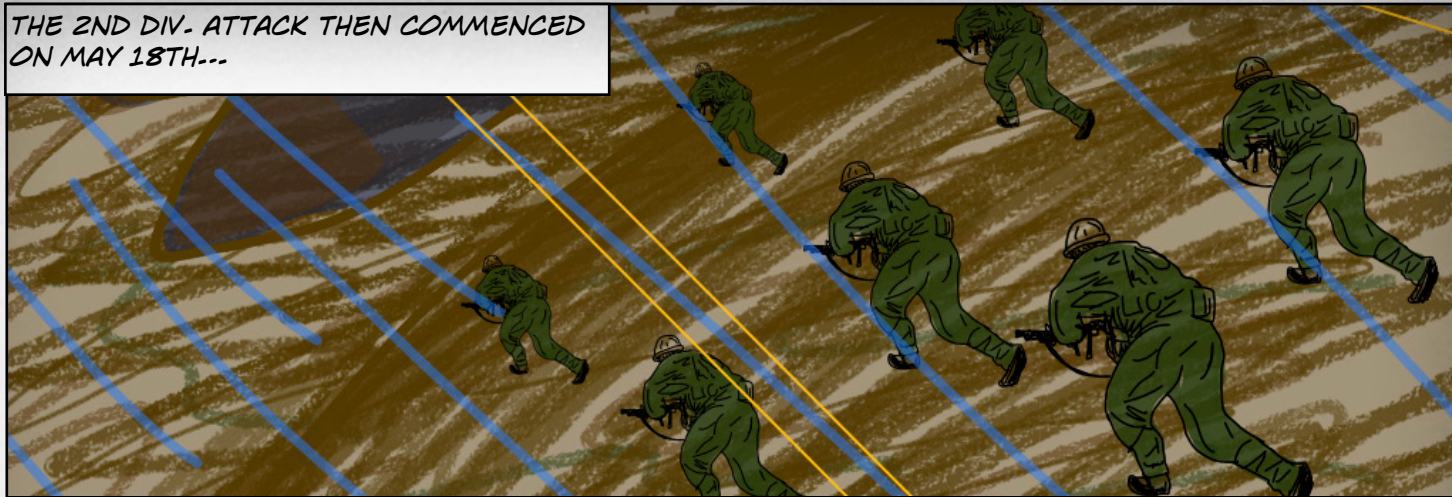

THE 7TH DIVISION HAVE BEEN BATTLING TO RELIEVE THE FRENCH IN THE BATTLE OF VIMY RIDGE. NOW THE 7TH DIVISION IS STRUGGLING AND THEY NEED OUR HELP CONTROLLING ENEMY TRENCHES.

DURING GEORGE'S 3RD DIVISION TRAINING...

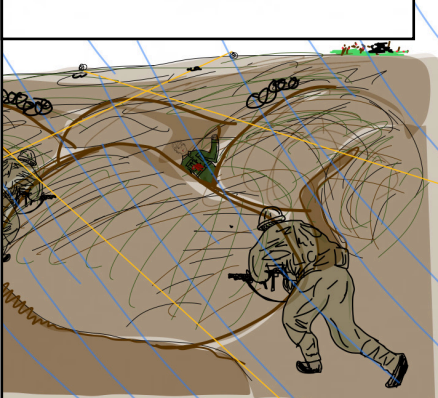

WE NEED TO CONTRIBUTED TO THE BATTLE OF FESTUBERT, BY MAY 20TH WE WILL TAKE LAND. SPECIFICALLY AN ORCHARD ALONG WITH A BUILDING.

THE 2ND DIV. ATTACK THEN COMMENCED ON MAY 18TH...

THE 3RD DIVISION ALSO STARTED THEIR ATTACK...THE ORCHARD WAS CLOSE...

BUT THEN...

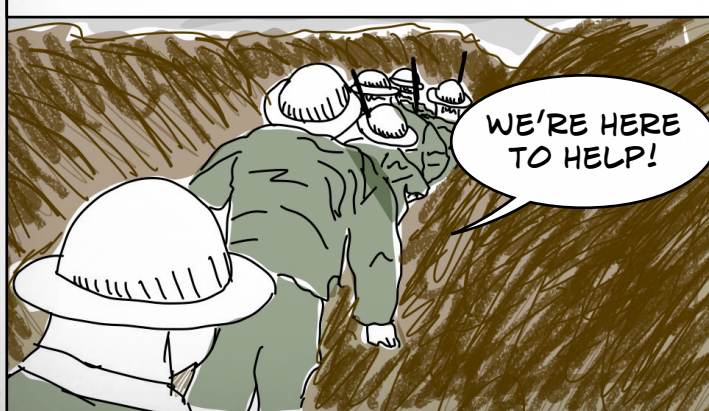

MEANWHILE IN THE 2ND DIVISION...

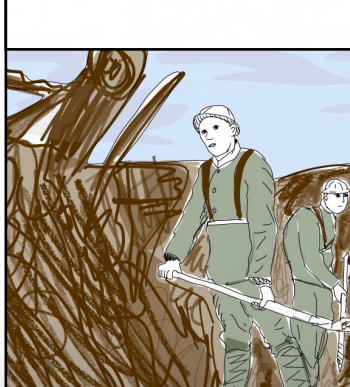

BY MAY 19TH THE 7TH AND 2ND DIVISION WERE ABLE TO RETREAT...

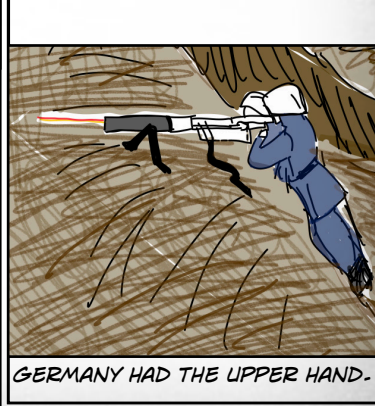

ALSO, ON MAY 18TH THE 1ST CANADIAN DIVISION CAME TO HELP THE 51ST BRITISH DIVISION...

THE BATTLE CONTINUED. THE ALLIES WERE ABLE TO DIG A NEW FRONT LINE.

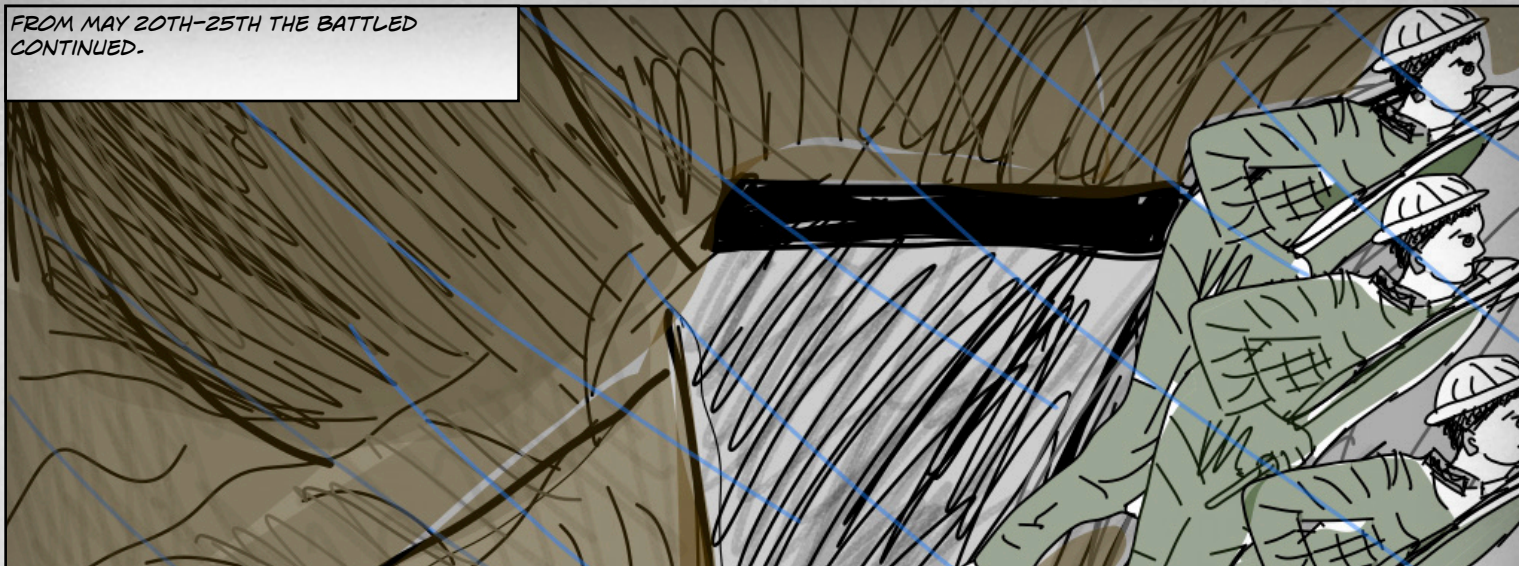

BUT ENEMY FIRE WAS STILL HEAVY.

GERMANY HAD THE UPPER HAND.

FROM MAY 20TH-25TH THE BATTLED CONTINUED.

BUT, THE GERMANS BROUGHT REINFORCEMENTS...

BUT BECAUSE IT WAS AN ATTACK IN WHICH THE ALLIES GOT SOME LAND THEY WON.

BUT AT WHAT COST?

THE BATTLE LEFT THE CANADIAN DIVISIONS WITH 2,355 CASUALTIES AND THE TOTAL ALLIED FORCES WITH 16,000. ALL FOR A 3KM ADVANCEMENT.

THE END
