

What A Splendid Day Lyrics

Anne:

What a splendid day
Birds chirpin' a lovely sound
Strolling down lovers lane
Our friendship forever bound

Diana:

Guess who's back today
All the girls think he's rather something
Ruby's got dibs on him
Every glance gets her blushing

Chorus (Anne):

I'm not falling for his charms
I dance to my own tune
Don't need him to take notice
I'm not the kind to swoon

Somewhere, somehow, sometime
They'll understand what it's like to be me
But for the meantime
I'm Anne, that's with an "e"

Gilbert:

Who's that new girl
With eyes so wide and bright
Why won't she notice me?
She's really quite a sight

Chorus (Anne):

I'm not falling for his charms
I dance to my own tune
Don't need him to take notice
I'm not the kind to swoon

Somewhere, somehow, sometime
They'll understand what it's like to be me
But for the meantime
I'm Anne with an "e"

Bridge:

Gilbert: Carrots, Carrots!

Anne: Stay calm, Anne

Don't worry
It's not worth it
Don't get teary

Don't let him win
He'll go away
Ignore his grin
Don't let him ruin your day

(Gilbert Pulls Hair)

Anne: That's it! You mean, hateful boy! How dare you!

Chorus (Anne):

I'm not falling for his charms
I dance to my own tune
Don't need him to take notice
I'm not the kind to swoon

Somewhere, somehow, sometime
They'll understand what it's like to be me
But for the meantime
Just Anne, but with an "e"
