

Multi-Paragraph Outline - Post War HUM 10

What significant developments occurred after WWII in Vancouver and across Canada?

Curricular Competencies:

SS: Historical Significance: Assess the significance of people, places, events, or developments at particular times and places.

ENGL: Communicate Compellingly: Respectfully exchange ideas and diverse viewpoints to build a shared understanding and extend thinking

Type of Composition: Descriptive / Informative

Topic: Small businesses and tourism in North Vancouver and Canada.

Thesis:

The development of small businesses on the north shore after the second world war is a significant result of the rise of tourism in Canada and a factor in the growth of the suburbs.

Hook:	Grab my attention with this opening statement! Consider a question, quote, statistic, or anecdote.	A haunted hotel, tourists, doughnuts and suburbia. What do they all have in common? They're all significant players in the history of small businesses in North Vancouver, and the history of the community itself.
Introduction:	This is all about how the growth of small businesses in Canada, specifically Deep cove, started and how they keep getting better. It's also about these businesses impact on the community and the tourists of North Vancouver.
Thesis:	The development of small businesses on the north shore after the second world war is a significant result of the rise of tourism in Canada and a factor in the growth of the suburbs.

Paragraph 1: people coming to Canada and opening small businesses/ the growing suburbs	Topic Sentence: After WWII Canada started growing in population, all of these people needed houses and jobs, that is where the rise of suburbia started.	Evidence 1: Population growth after WWII	Evidence 2: Rise of little stores and the beauty of BC
Paragraph 2: The history of North Vancouver/ deep cove small shops/ businesses.	Topic Sentence: North Vancouver has changed over the years, and there were lots of small businesses in North Vancouver growing as people began to visit. How will this impact the people who lived there at the time?	Evidence 1: Wigwam Inn	Evidence 2: Deep Cove Yacht Club
Paragraph 3: Tourism in North van and Honeys Doughnuts.	Topic Sentence: Today, Deep cove is a tourist hot spot riding on the beauty of BC and shops like Honeys doughnuts attracting visitors.	Evidence 1: Honeys Doughnuts	Evidence 2: Deep cove in the summer
Conclusion:	Topic Sentence: In conclusion, the growth of these small businesses over time has been a fairly positive outcome on the community and is mostly due to the beauty of BC and the tourists who come to see it.		