

This picture represents my time in the PLP program. It showcases how at the start of PLP I was nervous however, still ready for whatever homework that comes at me. My next picture showcases me much more nervous and anxious than the last one. This is due to the changing classes which makes me nervous since I really don't know what to expect for this quarter. Additionally, the rise in homework since PLP assigns more than classes like French. However, I think with time I will get use to the schedule and feel more comfortable in PLP.

This exhibit showcases my love for books. I have gone through many book phases through my life, at the start I love fantasy however, now I enjoy mystery and fantasy books. In future I can't wait to explore different genres

This exhibit represent my fondness for cats. Even though I have never had a cat, they have helped me find inspiration for my art and I have done multiple important school projects on cats.

A young girl with long blonde hair, wearing a blue dress, stands in a field of tall grass. The background is a soft, hazy landscape with a yellow sky. A yellow text box is overlaid on the left side of the image.

This exhibit is suppose to represent my first day at my elementary school. There is no doubt that I would definitely not be the person I am today if I decided upon a different school.
