

Multi-Paragraph Response Outline

Name: Sabrina

The theme of my Letter: We need to prevent wildfires or our ecosystem will be further destroyed

Question Prompt: (write out the question that you are being asked)

Hook:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We should've had a TV, she thought absurdly.” • When do you think climate change will permanently affect our ecosystem? • Some people 5 year, some 10, some 50 years, we will never know until that day comes, where we no longer have a home
Intro:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (replace this text with the important points you will include in your intro) • My letter relates to messaging the major to make changes for the wildfire or else we will be in big trouble in the future • The main theme of quiet town is the if we don't do anything about climate change quick enough there will be consequences that will affect the environment of billions of
Thesis:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • My letter and quiet town are related due to both events the people are warned before hand of the bad impact and don't take the warning seriously • By do this they make the issue worse than it originally was
Topic Sentence:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (A topic sentence is the most important sentence in a paragraph. Sometimes referred to as a focus sentence, the topic sentence helps organize the paragraph by summarizing the information in the paragraph). • My letter and this story are connected through how both deal with climate change • “When it was a few inches from the top of the wall, people started leaving town. In a month's time, the village had emptied.” • There are many ways one could deal with climate change, the important thing is that one tries to change for the environment
Evidence 1:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Gordy hadn't taken the news seriously, but at the time, nobody had” • Connect to my letter due to the similarity in haven't been taking action quick enough • “It's not my fault, Bev thought now. It's his fault, not mine. His. She wasn't the fool. It was him. He was” • Story climate change took over however, letter trying to change that by purposing solution to the problem • Today, people need to edrucate themselves on how close we are to losing our land and environment

Evidence 2:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •They could see it, stream after stream of it moving across empty driveways , splitting around the stop sign post, and then the thousand fingers of it bled together until the water was a blue-gray sheet, rippling along beneath the darkening sky, claiming the land for its own.” •“Mama, we gotta go,” Benjamin said.” •Connection to home and building being destroyed •Opinion on the effect this would have on the real world
Topic Sentence:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (A topic sentence is the most important sentence in a paragraph. Sometimes referred to as a focus sentence, the topic sentence helps organize the paragraph by summarizing the information in the paragraph). •
Conclusion:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (replace this text with some points you will include in your conclusion. Remember your conclusion does not introduce anything new! Wrap it up!) •Quiet town show this at the very end of the story •My letter also shows this fact at the very last paragraph of the story •Overall, I hope the people mention in both pieces of writing have a happy ending and the consequences won't be extremely severe • Both writing main theme is that if climate change won't change their will be severe consequences