EXT. INSIDE THE HOUSE - DAY

TEVA (14) [narrator]

(Teva sits inside on a stool, like an interview)

"I don't really know what home means to me. It's always been a difficult thing to think about. My whole family was born in Israel except for me, so finding my place is not so straight forward. You would think it's where I was born and currently live; deep cove, but, I don't feel satisfied with that answer. I feel at home in Israel."

B ROLL:

Shot 1: Close up of Israeli flag blowing in the wind

Shot 2: Picture of family

CUTS TO:

MONTAGE: clips of Teva in Israel

Shot 1: fast motion clip of train station

Shot 2: Horse Riding in Israel near the mountains. Viewing over the scenery and landscapes

Shot 3: short compilation looking out the car window and viewing the scenery of Israel

CUTS TO:

TEVA (14) [narrator]

"Recently, I went to the ארץ or, what we call Israel. It felt so nice to speak and understand the language I speak at home everywhere I went and getting exposed to culture and people that felt so familiar"

EXT. BEACH - DAY

Teva (14) is at the beach with her sister. She explores and finds shells and rocks in the sand.

NARRATOR (V.O.)

"I didn't think that just stepping foot into somewhere would feel so right, like it's where I belong.
Even if home isn't conventionally
beautiful, it's beautiful to you"

Teva climbs rock and sees beach from a new angle

CUT TO:
